CROATIA

More than a thousand islands, rich cultural heritage, preserved nature

Croatia is a small European country situated on the north of the Mediterranean Basin. A country with a rich cultural and historical heritage with many sites and traditions listed on UNESCO's World Heritage and Intangible Culture lists. One of these sites, the Old City of Dubrovnik became world-known as the most famous fantasy kingdom capitals - King's Landing. But not only Croatian man-made heritage is fairytale-like; nature is also something that seems to be coming from a dreamland. Almost two thousand kilometres of indented coastline along the clear Adriatic Sea speckled with more than a thousand islands and islets make the Croatian coast surprisingly beautiful, while mountains, lakes and waterfalls make the hinterland wondrous, too. We invite you to discover it all.

Istria

Istria is a heart-shaped peninsula surrounded by the Adriatic Sea on the northwest of Croatia. Dubbed as Terra Magica since the Roman times, Istria offers an experience of an authentic way of living respectful of nature and its seasons. With a mild Mediterranean climate and more than two thousand hours of sunshine in a year, Istria is beautiful the whole year-round. Here, you are always close to the peaceful inland known as Green Istria, and the lively coast - Blue Istria. Inland Istria is full of picturesque medieval hilltop villages, vineyards, olive groves and family farmhouse restaurants offering authentic Istrian dishes; while the eventful coast offers a variety of beaches - rocky, pebbly, secluded or filled with water activities, Michelin-recommended restaurants with fresh seafood delicacies and open-air festivals.

Pula

Three thousand-year-old Pula, the largest urban centre of Istria, is a Mediterranean town located on the south of the Istrian peninsula, it is known for its pleasant climate and exceptionally indented coastline. Pristine beaches, pebbled coves and wild rocky shores with the tame inland landscape, alternate with the streets of the city, luring you to take a trip through layers of history. Pula is a magical place with hundred faces and a mysterious past, a city of ancient myths, whose beginnings fade in the haze of history. From the magnificent ancient amphitheatre, locally known as Arena, to the streets and squares constructed in the days of the Roman Empire, the city is a centre of numerous manifestations and events.

Medulin

Medulin is a pearl of Istria's tourism located on its very south, about ten kilometres from Pula. Recognized for decades by guests from all over Europe, it has transformed from a small fishing village to a lively touristic centre bursting with life all summer long. Medulin has something to offer for everyone. There is an abundance of concerts, folklore evenings, restaurants, beach bars and clubs, and many opportunities for sports activities, from windsurfing, mountain biking, diving to water skiing and sky diving. Come and discover the vibrant heart of Istria's tourism.
